§3-207.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section:

(1) if a license is denied, another license application may not be considered from the same applicant or for the same location for 6 months after the denial; and

(2) if a subsequent application by the same applicant or for the same location is denied within a 2-year period immediately after the first denial, another application may not be considered from that applicant or for that location until the 2-year period expires.

(b) This section does not apply to:

(1) an applicant, if the license was denied because it was not necessary to accommodate the public or the location was not suitable for the sale of alcoholic beverages; or

(2) the location, if the license was denied because the Comptroller determined that the applicant was not a proper person to be issued the license.
